Insolvency

Our solution

Levi Solicitors have expertise in all areas of contentious and non-contentious corporate and personal insolvency. We have associations with Insolvency Practitioners, Accountants, Lenders and Financial Institutions throughout Yorkshire and we can assist whether a business is facing financial crisis and a formal insolvency procedure is required, or if there is a prospect of survival and a restructuring strategy is a realistic and favoured way forward.

If it is your personal debt that is becoming unmanageable, we can offer advice on how to deal with mounting pressure from creditors. We will deal with the formalities should it be necessary to attend Court, the Department of Trade & Industry or the Insolvency Service.

At Levi Solicitors we are committed to providing a commercial and practical approach to the problems that may be facing your business or your personal finances. We aim to understand our clients issues fully and commit to solving them. We can offer the knowledge, understanding and experience to achieve this aim.

Our insolvency team will help you manage critical insolvency issues through the delivery of practical and commercially focused advice and promise to...

...bring a fresh perspective to the delivery of insolvency advice and support.

Our services

As an established and leading commercial firm in the region we can call upon our experience and expertise in all areas of commercial and corporate law when dealing with restructuring or insolvency matters.
